

ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

The Environmental Quality function consists of Cooperative Extension Services, Soil and Water Conservation, and Forestry. This function's budget is $552,940 or 0.2 percent of the total expenditures for the fiscal year. This function is funded by the County, as well as State and Federal governments, and provides technical and advisory services to the agricultural community.

